ITS GOODBYE FROM JEFF KILL

Peter Lucas says 'Thank You' to Jeff Kill

After fourteen years as our Head Caretaker, Jeff Kill is retiring from The Community Centre.

Jeff has given more than his share of effort in helping to keep the Centre running, often putting in extra time and using his own tools to get things done. His handyman skills have been really useful to keep the building together. Jeff's last job was to convert the first floor Club Room into a function room, which we named after Stan Woodford – the Woodford Suite.

Jeff was given a 'Thank You' party by his colleagues and he was presented with a pewter tankard as a parting gift.

Roy, Bob and Ray – our new caretaking team

Jeff has been replaced by two new caretakers. You may already know Ray Hughes. He is the Youth Club worker at the Centre and is delighted not to be up at the crack of dawn at his former bakery job. Bob Haynes is joining us from Paulsgrove Community Centre. He had retired but misses working with people, so is coming to us for 25 hours a week. He has a breadth of experience working in a community and school environment.

OUR RECEPTIONIST/MANAGEMENT TEAM

Glenda and Jayne in the Office

We have also had some changes on the administrative side. Glenda Walklate has been with us for some time now and has helped enormously with the growth of the organisation. We have been trying to become more professional in the way that we work but it was stretching Glenda's time and our resources. So, Jane Bryant joined us in September and already is making a significant contribution to the office administration. This has enabled us to promote Glenda to be the Centre Manager, looking after the administration of the Centre.

We now look forward to a period of growth and improvement to the Community Centre. Already we have plans for improving the entrance foyer and for making better use of the Woodford Suite - all for the benefit of your community.
